2023 • Essential Kitchen Designs

Italian Technology giant BRETONSTONE® was the first to develop the ground breaking technology to manufacture engineered stone plants, and even today, they remain the world leader in engineered stone technology. Their trademarked plants produce the most durable and technically perfect quartz surfaces, guaranteed to give life to your kitchen counter top for 20 years or longer.

Among various BRETONSTONE® plants around the globe, Coante is the latest plant with the most advanced State of Art robotic technology which produces natural marble design quartz slabs. No other quartz plant in the world comes close to the advanced technology when it comes to veined quartz design. The super innovative designs of Coante quartz prove irresistible for any homeowner.
